linkain.id — Social Media Strategy & Visual Identity Case Study

Social Media Manager & Post Designer

Project Overview

About the Brand

linkain.id is a textile brand offering a wide range of fabrics for various needs, from fashion to everyday and custom projects. The objective was to strengthen its online presence by developing a visually cohesive and engaging social media identity.

My Role

Managed the entire social media account independently, overseeing:

- Content strategy and planning
- Photoshoots and visual production
- Photo and video editing
- Poster and carousel design
- Posting schedule and brand direction

Goal

Strengthen brand identity while increasing engagement through visually consistent, structured, and entertaining content.
